EL AMOR MÁS GRANDE

Megan Jacobson · Beck Feiner

family

"This is our house. It is very big! But it's not as big as my love for you."

A journey through the different types of families: single-parent, homoparental, with several siblings, grandparents... and through the places where they live: their home, their neighborhood, their city, the world, the universe... No matter how big the place is, the love of families towards their sons and daughters is always bigger.

The love for a son or a daughter is the biggest, bigger than a city, bigger than a planet, or even the entire universe!

A picture book to tell kids that nothing is bigger than the love we feel for them.

EL ROSA, EL AZUL Y TÚ

Elise Gravel · Mykaell Blais

Is it okay for boys to cry? Can girls be strong? Should girls and boys be given different toys to play with and different clothes to wear? Should we all feel free to love whoever we choose to love?

In this incredibly kid-friendly and easy-to-grasp picture book, author-illustrator Elise Gravel raises these questions and others relating to gender roles, acceptance, and stereotyping.

Simple, accessible, and direct, this picture book is perfect for kids and parents or teachers to read together, opening the door to conversations about gender stereotypes and everyone's right to be their true selves.

This book was originally published in English with the title Pink, Blue and You. It got a starred review from the School Library Journal:

★ "Wildly appealing, and the comic-style presentation helps to endear the book to readers... thoughtful, engaging, and visually bright."
