ABOUT US

NubeOcho is a children's publishing house committed to respect for diversity and equality between girls and boys. Our books are poetic, entertaining, didactic and playful, and they are attractive means to help the young ones express their emotions and deal with difficult experiences.

At NubeOcho, we strive to promote the fondness for reading and illustration. From an early age, books constitute an irreplaceable vehicle for learning, experimentation, observation and transformation towards a more socially respectful future.

Since our establishment in 2012, we have worked with important writers and illustrators, including with young authors. We have also published noteworthy foreign books. NubeOcho is the Spanish language publisher of internationally known authors like Chris Haughton, Jon Klassen, Britta Teckentrup and Steve Antony.

Over the last years, our books have received several national awards such as the Kiriko Prize and the Prize for the Best Published Book from the Spanish Ministry of Culture. Some of our international awards include the Kate Greenaway, the New York Times Best Illustration Children Book and Kirkus Award. Our books have also been selected by prestigious institutions, including White Ravens or Junior Library Guild.

NubeOcho attends international specialized book fairs such as Bologna Children Book Fair, Guadalajara (Mexico) Fair, Frankfurt and Liber.
