THE TREASURE OF THE DINOSAURS

Alicia Acosta Mónica Carretero

Once upon a time, there was a little pirate. He was so very little that everyone called him Little Captain Jack.

One day, Jack and his crew were following the trail of the most coveted treasure in all the Seven Seas:
the treasure of the dinosaurs.

"LAND HO!" shouted one of the cabin girls.

A marvelous island rose up out of the mist.
It was covered in enormous trees, incredible plants,
and never-before-seen creatures.

The crew went ashore and began exploring. But all of a sudden, they lost sight of their tiny captain.

"Help!" they heard.

Jack had fallen into a hole!

When they pulled him out, they realized that the hole was actually... a dinosaur footprint!

They were taking a closer look when...

ROOOOOOOOOOAR!

A gigantic, grumpy-looking Tyrannosaurus rex appeared and began chasing them!

"RUN!" shouted the little pirate.

Jack and his crew fled as fast as their feet could carry them, but suddenly a pterodactyl snatched the little pirate up into the air.

"Let go of me, you measly bird!
I'm not food!"

The pterodactyl dropped Jack inside its nest then took off again.

"I have to get out of here, or these things will eat me," Jack thought to himself. So, he picked up an eggshell, held onto it like a parachute, and jumped.

"AHHHHHHH!"

The little pirate descended slowly until he landed on the top of a tree.
