SuperFreddy was superawesome.
Every day, he rescued someone from grave danger.
Last Sunday, he saved a little old man. "Watch out for that plant!"
And a cat. "Do you want to get back down or not?"

Everybody loved SuperFreddy.

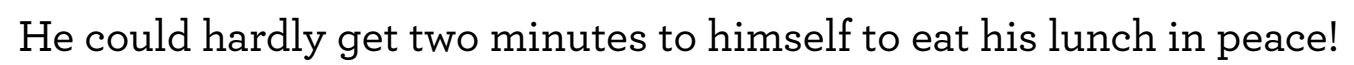

“You’re the best!”

“You’re my hero!”

“You’re so strong!”

all the time.

It'd been ages since SuperFreddy went to the park just to play. The last time he went, he had to spend the whole time pushing all the other girls and boys on the swings.

"Can you really lift up the bench?!" they asked. And SuperFreddy used his superstrength to lift it.

Every day, all the other kids in town got to have fun.
But what about SuperFreddy?

Well, superheroes have a lot of responsibilities.
SuperFreddy had to be constantly on the lookout,
making sure nothing bad happened.

And he had to spend hours training at the gym!
